

A SPANISH CRISIS

Internal Affairs Cause as Much Uneasiness as the External Situation.

STRONG REVOLUTIONARY TENDENCIES

Cries of "Long Live Don Carlos," "Long Live the Republic," "Long Live Weyler."

A Demand for the Resignation of Senor Sagasta—The Formation of a National Military With Camps at the Head.

LONDON, May 4.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail telegraphically Tuesday says:

"There is no longer any doubt that the internal situation is causing the government almost as much uneasiness as the external. Monday night's demonstration was one of the most serious in some time since those openly premeditated and their revolutionary tendencies. Cries were raised of 'Down with the Bourbons,' 'Long live Don Carlos,' 'Long live the republic,' and 'Long live Weyler.'"

"The first move of the demonstrators, over a thousand strong, was to the house of Gen. Weyler, where the object of cheering him. He did not appear, and the crowd then went to the residence of Senor Sagasta, where the ministers were in conference, and shouted in favor of his resignation. Senor Aguilera, civil governor of Madrid broke up the procession with the aid of the police who were badly stoned and had to charge the crowd. The authorities then on met with Senor Aguilera who announced his intention of resigning, saying that it cost him great trouble to repress such manifestations, and that he was not able to answer for order with the powers at his disposal."

"Thereupon the edict was issued placing Madrid under martial law, and the military governor, Gen. Daban, received stringent orders from Gen. Weyler, the minister of war, for the preservation of peace."

"Meanwhile the cabinet council is discussing the political situation, and in favor of an immediate suspension of the constitutional guarantees, a step which requires closing the cortes. The other members of the cabinet, however, consider this inconsistent with the present moment, because it would wipe out many years of the history of the liberal party."

"There is a general belief that a total cabinet crisis is imminent and that it will probably end in a considerable modification of the present government, possibly in the formation of a national ministry under the presidency of Marshal Martinez Campos. In any case parliament is certain to be closed shortly."

"The events of the last few days have undoubtedly increased the popularity of Gen. Weyler who favors an out and out war policy. At the same time there is no lack of sympathy for the republicans, and the people are beginning to feel that he will come to the head of affairs. Gen. Weyler is notorious but not a prominent person in Spanish politics. Politicians and the people at large have been paying but little attention to him recently. His party is composed of a few persons of no very high standing. Moreover every one recognized that Weyler's cruelty in Cuba, and his policy as to the reconquest, largely contributed to bring about the present state of affairs, while his alleged notorious laxity with regard to public money has made him much disliked. Public opinion is always likely to mistrust him, and he is unpopular with the queen regent."

"The country en masse is opposed to the idea of a republic. The people prefer Don Carlos. Monday night was a change. They had enough of the republic in 1873. The indignation which is felt at present is not against the present dynasty, but against the government and the politicians in general."

"If a military dictatorship should come, it would most probably be under the queen regent and possibly Gen. Martinez Campos. Even Gen. Polavieja has more chance than Gen. Weyler. Such a dictatorship would take the form of conferring the premiership on one of these generals with full powers."

LONDON, May 4.—A special dispatch from Madrid via Bayona says:

"In the mob Monday night were many officers in uniform who were foremost in inciting the people to attack the ministers' residence. They were loudest in calling for Weyler. There is no doubt these men desired to provoke the government into firing on the mob and so to pave the way for its downfall. Some of them were arrested but were subsequently released, the government fearing to let it be known that officers of the army formed a part of the mob."

While the streets were thus occupied great unrest was manifested at the various barracks and the soldiers were only prevented from joining the mob by the personal pleadings of the officers."

"The republicans were even more bawdy than the mob Monday night, and shouting, 'Down with the queen regent.' More than once they led the mob toward the royal palace, but each time the police drove them back."
